

DEPUTY FLEENOR ESCORTS STUDENTS AT HARLAN

EVID
IN '3

Hung
Half

(Cor
HOL
mixed
pared
in the charge
John
Clai
tery o.
a stron
The fa
the ju Polyne
fense.
Dar
doubt

ROW
ANCE JSSIA

turers Who illions An-Russia.

l States to estab-
a the opinion of
ican Tool Works
r economic justi-

illions annually,
European com-
come to us, and who want to be as forced us and ussia virtually to out of work.

ere is hardly a American manu-
the near future

facturers cannot er bankers bor-
ce Russian bus-

yards Russia.
hat Russia is country left
ch it is now
de on a big
the British ted a policy
le for its
that de-

using to mal rend our ers

Because they came solely on an "educational tour," the group of students shown above, from the department of journalism, Marshall College, Huntington, W. Va., were permitted to travel thru the Harlan, Ky., coal fields unmolested under escort of a deputy sheriff assigned to the party by Sheriff John Henry Blair. They are shown in front of the court house at Harlan. First row, left to right: Bessie MacLachlan, Virginia Lee, Jessie Mae Waldron, Mary Magee and Deputy Sheriff Lee Fleenor. Second row: Ben Tobin, Mack Beard, Garland Ray, William Estler, Professor Page Pitt, professor of journalism in charge of the party, and Harry Wright. Deputy Sheriff Fleenor was the principal in the shooting of two miners during a clash at the Harlan swimming pool relief kitchen last August. He recently was indicted on a murder charge.

It is all part of a scheme to dis- | FRE courage Russian trade.
"Russian trade is to our
vantage by four or f
And the idea that only temporary
There

[ND]