

Rail Road. Here is his great positive strength, counteracted with his kin in the Board. The patronage of the University in his hands too is a leverage that is used by him for the destruction of the Church, interest in it. I would be pleased to see you and confer as to what had best be done to head off Brownman in his trade to the Church. So we though not without full trust in the right being sustained, it looks as though Brownman will override our every effort unless we can awaken the honest men in the Board to a sense of his baseness and perfidy. How <sup>can</sup> this be accomplished.

Truly Yours Truly
E. J. Northampton

Aug 5th 1843

Bro Williams

I sincerely and honestly believe this move is premature and would work against what we believe to be the interest of our Brotherhood and the World. I have I think good reasons to believe the Board if called together now by the friends of Bro McGarvey would put him out of his position at once.

Believing this I do not feel like putting in their power to do what I think they desire to do.

I prefer letting the opposite party call the meeting if it has to be done. My opinion is that ~~Bro~~