My Dear Lady
Since seeing you I have had a good deal of talk with friends in regard to an Representative on the arbitration. They are without exception in favor of F. R. Hunt in preference to any one else, for several reasons. 1st because of his high standing as a lawyer and gentleman, 2<sup>d</sup> because he takes a lively interest in the prosperity of the Institution, 3<sup>d</sup> because he has taken no part in the Controversy, and would show no partiality for the other side. He has a pretty fair notion of Burmanns general Character and would not hesitate to
