Dear General

Your letter was rec'd this morning. Accept my thanks for the considerate kindness intended by you I do not think it advisable to show it to Mr. Mun. Nor does it seem to me becoming that I should ask the Com. to be called for the reason, that from the information before me, my sense of duty to the Military, to him and myself all urge me to refuse his resignation.

I have sought to learn the complaints against Mr. Mun and will lay before the Com.
all I have heard both pro & con
