ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Staff Development Committee

The Staff Development Committee met Wednesday, October 26 to discuss its first program. Susan Miller, from Ohio State University Libraries, will be coming on November 16 to speak about the growing trend towards research and publication requirements for librarians and the effect such policies have on librarians and support staff. There are two articles which deal with Ms. Miller's topic: Miller, Susan L., et al. "To Be or Not to Be: An Academic Library Research Committee," Journal of Academic Librarianship, v. 2, no. 1, 1976, pp. 20-24 and De Simone Watson, Paula. "Publication Activity among Academic Librarians," College & Research Libraries, v. 38, no. 5, 1977, pp. 375-384. If you are interested in reading the articles, Mollie Sandock has several copies.

SPECIAL LIBRARIES ASSOCIATION MEETING

The Kentucky Chapter of the Special Libraries Association will hold a two day conference in Louisville, Kentucky, November 10-11. There will be speakers with expertise in different areas of communications. In addition, the group will tour The Filson Club historical society library and its Kentucky history museum as well as the Brennan residence, a Victorian town house maintained by The Filson Club.

RARE MATERIALS CONFERENCE

A seminar on out-of-print and rare materials will be conducted by the Graduate School of Librarianship, University of Denver, December 5-9. Registration deadline is November 21. The emphasis will be on identification and acquisition of material. The seminar is geared to practicing librarians. Additional information may be obtained from a leaflet in possession of the Editor.

PERSONNEL

There will be a staff rotation during the month of November. Acquisitions/CSR, Biological Sciences, Agriculture, and Inter-Library Loans have indicated an interest in having a person work in their unit. Any support staff member who would like to spend one week (approximately 15-20 hours) in one of these units should first discuss it with his/her department head and then let Faith Harders know by Wednesday, November 9.

Clerical Assistant. Grade 16 Newspaper/ Microtexts (microfilmer).
If intersted, please see Faith Harders.
