The World Whirls On

While Congress was debating over the question of our neutrality in the present European conflict, an event occurred last week which may serve to drag us into more rather than diplomatic negotiations and, possibly, into the war itself.

BEAUTIES WON'T GO COMMERCIAL, DECLARE DEANS

Kentucky Association Ruling Explained By Mrs. Holmes

Because of the comment which has arisen over the University's failure to name any women as representatives in the Kentucky Tobacco Festival, Lexington November 1-4, Assistant Dean of Women, Sarah E. Holmes, announced the reason for this action, or lack of action.

Mrs. Holmes said that, since the time, more than 10 years ago, when the University started sending representatives to the Mountain Laurel Festival in Pineville, she has been the recipient of a growing number of requests for women to attend various functions.

At the 1939 annual meeting of the Kentucky Associations of Deans of Women, Lexington, a committee was appointed by the president of the association to formulate an expression of attitude toward campus queens and such, both in the high schools and the colleges.

The report which the committee returned said in part that "as an association, we regret exceedingly the exploitation of our women students for commercial purposes, and that we pledge ourselves to enlist the aid of our educational institutions to discourage all such practices not in keeping with our educational ideal."

Mrs. Holmes, as well as her committee, felt that to send representatives to the festival would give rise to the charge of favoritism.

Mrs. Holmes said yesterday that "it is unfortunate that we had to refuse to participate in the Tobacco Festival, but in keeping with the agreement we now have with institutions all over the state we can make no exceptions. We will refer to our representatives to all similar functions."

Faculty members of the committee for reorganization of student government, who aided in the drafting of the new constitution, will lead a discussion next Thursday at 7 p. m. in the Union music room.

Articles written by Mary Stuart Pile, senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, and Helen King, assistant in the publicity bureau, are published in the fall issue of "In Kentucky" magazine.

Miss Pile's article "Heyday of the Inn Saw Famous Kentucky Taverns," was written as a class assignment in journalism. It pictures several early taverns and discusses the traditions surrounding them.

Gala Premiere Planned For Opening Of Guignol

SOLDIERS PLAN FOR ANNUAL DAY

With all the color and glamour of a world premiere, the University's Guignol theatre will open its 12th season at 8:30 Monday night with Kaufman and Hart's "You Can't Take It With You" providing the vehicle for a star-studded cast headed by Professor L. L. Dantzer.

Members of the University chapter, company D, fourth regiment wearing complete uniform, will observe the day by going to the freshman football game in a body, and then returning to the armory for a smoker and refreshments. Cigars and punch will be supplied from company treasury funds.

Other companies in the fourth regiment are the universities of Bryan, Kansas, Tennessee, Arizona, California, Emory, and the Agricultural College of Utah and the Colorado Agricultural College.

Officers elected for this year besides Captain Ramey include Frank Roberts, first lieutenant; Logan Caldwell, second lieutenant; and John Tuttle, sergeant.

Miss Alberta Limbach, dietitian in the women's dormitories, will speak to the women's Senior Forum Wednesday at 5 p. m. in the Y rooms of the Union. Miss Limbach's subject will be "Cosmetic Care of the Skin." All persons interested are invited to attend.

A telegram received last night from Senator Nye in Washington stated that "As conferences between the House and Senate on the neutrality bill will take place next week, it will be impossible for Senator Nye to leave Washington."

This cancels the lecture by the student body on the University's stance on the neutrality bill to be held at Memorial Hall.

The student body feels that, under present conditions, the United States should arm to the hilt against any country situated in the western hemisphere.

Stuents, almost, are, say they would fight should the United States itself be attacked by a foreign power. They voice their willingness to go to war should any of the nations territorial possessions be attacked, but they are undecided as to whether or not they would fight in the case of a defense of any country situated in the western hemisphere.

TWO PORTRAITS TO BE UNVEILED

Unveiling of the portraits of Dr. James Thomas Colton Noe, poet laureate of Kentucky and Dr. Henry Rhoads, both professors emeriti in the College of Education will take place in the auditorium of the Education building at 4 p. m. today.

Dr. Wellington Patrick, head of the department of history of education, will preside at the unveiling exercises. Dr. M. E. Lyon, head of the department of secondary education is chairman of the program.

DOGPATCH FOLKS TO BE ON RADIO

Sadie Hawkins, the patron saint of modern girls, will be featured on radio on November 11, along with Daisy Mae, Harriette Joy, and other members of the Dogpatch strip town of Dogpatch.

The broadcast will come over an NBC net network from Philadelphia, and the occasion will be that city's annual University holiday, which will be held on November 11 under the auspices of Keys, men's sophomore honor society.

A costume dance is held on the occasion and women must take "dates" with tags which are placed on sale at the University book store on Friday the day before.

Headed the list of eleven candidates in the cast will be Erma Jean Reis and Jay Miltner, playing the featured role of "Grandpa" Vanderhof, the comic-philosophical head of the erratic Sycamore household which the play treats.

Miss Rees, a junior in the College of Agriculture and a member of Phi Beta, has played in other Guignol productions including "Stage Door," while Miltner is a newcomer to the University, having transferred from Kent State University, Ohio, where he was active in dramatics.

Christine McBrayer and Arthur Bicknell, Penelope and Paul Syre, and Isabel White and Wayne Howell as Essie and Ed Carmichael round out the Sycamore family, while Dorothy Love Elliot and Howard Moffett portray the Negro raid Rieta and her boyfriend David.

Lola Reynolds as Gay and Robert Lundquist, Robert Triplett and Harwood Stark as the three "J" men complete the cast.

Student Opinion In Local Survey Says "No," To Participation In Present European War

The poll, based upon methods employed by the American Institute of Public Opinion, which was conducted by a student survey organization at the University of California.

These queries, together with the statistics on the answers received are as follows: 10 Unites; present conditions. (Continued on Page Five)

ODK ELIGIBLES TO FILE POINTS

Qualification sheets for Omicron Delta Kappa, men's leadership fraternity, are due at noon November 8 at the Kernal business office on the main floor of McVey hall.

Lists explaining the point system used in evaluating qualifications of aspirants may be obtained at the office of Prof. R. D. McIntyre, professor of marketing and salesmanship in the commerce college, Prof. M. E. Poser, head of the physical education department in the gym annex, or at the Kernal business office.

As to be considered as a candidate for the organization a man must have a standing of 1.5 in the University and have accumulated at least ten points from a list of activities compiled by the circle. Candidates must have worked in two more fields of activity, according to the plan.

Caldwell Accepts Wisconsin Position

Dr. Morris G. Caldwell, assistant professor of sociology at the University of Wisconsin, has accepted the position of director of the division of corrections for the state of Wisconsin.

Dr. Caldwell's resignation as assistant professor of sociology at the University will become effective December 1, at which time he will go to Madison.

Dr. Caldwell has been connected with the University sociology department five years, before which time he was an instructor at Ashland College, Ashland, Ohio, and was connected with Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri.

Women Need Permission To Attend Game

Women must have special permission from their homes to attend the Xavier-Kentucky football game at Cincinnati Saturday, according to an announcement from the dean of women's office.

50 Petition To Represent Their Respective Colleges

Forty seven petitions were received Wednesday for candidacy for the 20 representative seats on the student legislature in Monday's election. Of this number one petition was thrown out because the applicant had less than the 40 standing required and two applicants have withdrawn from the race since submitting petitions.

EDUCATORS OPEN MEETING TODAY

The 16th annual meeting of the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools today opens a two-day meeting at 9:30, this morning with a general session in Memorial hall under the direction of President Frank M. Weaver, Sikes.

The following changes adopted last April by the circle will go into effect at the election November 9: 1) no points for Interfraternity council membership will be granted to freshmen who are also presidents of social fraternities.

As to be considered as a candidate for the organization a man must have a standing of 1.5 in the University and have accumulated at least ten points from a list of activities compiled by the circle. Candidates must have worked in two more fields of activity, according to the plan.

Race Reminds Colonel Of Old Times

Today the Colonel is sort of weary. An enthusiastic spectator in every political campaign for the last half-century, the old boy has just witnessed one of the mudslingingest, name-callingest affairs since the McKinley-Bryan race of '96.

But the Colonel has hopes. He looks forward to the time, now that the votes have been counted and the victory celebrated, when the winning party will become conscious of the great opportunities and responsibilities which the polls have brought to this.

Student government, opines the Colonel, is not to be treated as were the "political football" systems of last year and the year before and the year before that.

Education Becomes Cooperative, Democratic

From the days of Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle teachers have been telling students what to do. It has been an autocratic and aristocratic system that education has followed.

But with modern education came a change to more democratic and cooperative teaching methods. Teachers were no longer rulers of the classrooms but served as guides and counselors.

Today education has come so far from dogmatism that teachers are turning to students with the question "What shall we study and how?" Classes are becoming round-table discussions with students taking the lead.

At the state educational conference on the campus this week further evidence of student opinion in teaching methods will be shown when students from leading Kentucky colleges and secondary schools will discuss educational problems at a round-table.

Among the questions to be considered are: what part of a college education will directly fit the student for his occupation or profession after college; under departmentalized procedure how do contradictions in teachings of the various departments affect the student; how much value is gained from contacts with teachers after class hours; what types of examinations do students consider best?

No Storm, Tornado—Just An Election

No, it wasn't the debris of a flood, nor the propaganda raid of a foreign power which caused hall floors of the Union to resemble the cutting room of a pattern factory last Monday evening.

Perhaps it is slightly dog-in-the-mangerish, especially after the excellent vote in Monday's election, to complain of "minor" details of thoughtlessness and mild vandalism.

Extra help had to be added to the janitorial staff of the Union, numerous students were directed at the studios and at the new government for allowing such actions.

Another election, for the Arts and Sciences college, will probably be held in the Union next Monday. The parties, the candidates themselves, can demonstrate their sincerity in respective races for the legislature by asking supporters and political representatives to exercise a fair amount of reserve in dropping circulars, cigarettes, and jags in the halls of campus buildings.

Behind The Eckdahl

Time, the element with which we deal from day to day and not the magazine, moves relentlessly onward. And with it, science and progress ruthlessly shove aside the certainties of yesterday.

Man, already confused by the whirlwind illogicalizations of the last two decades, is constantly inventing new devices to perplex his tortured mind.

Not so long ago you could walk in to a restaurant, ask for doughnuts and coffee, and, with no further ado, be served your order. That would be the end of it.

We went into a downtown restaurant recently, and with an air of confident finality ordered, "Doughnuts and coffee."

"But the waitress immediately asked, "Round straight, glazed, cinnamon, sugared, plain or yeast?"

Our friend Butch writes as follows: "Even if Cal Cowdell did fiddle for his memory and we had a lot of fun when he ruled."

Mr. Billy Hudson, who lives in Versailles, is a freshman at the University. We really know of no good reason why he should merit mention herein, but we have a feeling, a sort of premonition, that we should mention him.

A combination of English, Political Science, German and Philosophy having developed into something of a Maginot line, we find ourselves, believe it or not, behind the eight ball. Firmly believing that an appeasement policy would have little effect on UK profs, we are planning more drastic action. For that reason, Behind the Eckdahl, will appear only once a week in the future. So, if you miss the column Tuesday just expect it Friday.

Mmmm... Poor Delivery, Stale Jokes, Biased Lectures, Bad Sport, etc.

Campuscene

... on swing music and the ring-masters who put it through its paces ...

No attempt to write a column dealing with the collegian's ideals, activities, likes and dislikes would be complete without some informal dissertation upon contemporary dance orchestras and the current "popular" music.

For, however trivial and impertinent these things openly may seem, they definitely play top roles in university life. They are, next to courting perhaps, the campusite's most welcomed escape valve from the strife and greed and all other inhumanities which now hold the world in their grip.

Top-ranking orchestra at the present time, judging from the current trend in music style, undoubtedly is that of Glen Miller. He more than any other leader, has succeeded in taking out the jitter-jutting back the glitter, into dancel music.

His "Moonlight Serenade" is a popular masterpiece, and, in our opinion, is destined to take a place alongside the deathless "Stardust," "Night and Day," and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

Second place we would award to Bob Crosby, whose music is having more influence on the torrid varieties of swing than anyone has had since the early days of the Benny Goodman reign. And, being personally shot with the "guy, we think it's about time.

For the third notch we nominate the perennial Tommy Dorsey, who, every angle taken into consideration, has the best all-around orchestra in the nation. The man can play just about anything and make it too the evardims.

Although the album has not yet fallen off the revolutionary "Marie" and "Song of India" we put forward as the best example of the Doreman trombone the yearling "Old Cu

CARBURETOR KAYWOODIE $4

In this Kaywoodie pipe, called the Carburator Kaywoodie, a wonderfully sweeping pipe has been improved by the application of a neat little principle of physics. When you take a puff at one of these Carburator Kaywoodies, you automatically draw air through a tiny inlet in the bottom of the bowl. That incoming air keeps the smoke cool, sweet and serene, no matter how belaguered you puff. In fact, the harder you puff, the sweeter it comes in. That's why it's called a Carburator Kaywoodie. Everybody knows that a Kaywoodie is the most socially-conscious of pipes—yet itself admitted everywhere. And the Kaywoodie flows a famous. But don't let us urge you. Shown above, No. 22.

"Cider Shag" Planned For Saturday; Founders' Honored By Two Sororities

Spirit Of Hallow'e'en Will Be Dance's Motif

A "Cider Shag" under the auspices of the Union will be held from 9 to 12 p. m. Saturday. Bill Cross' orchestra will play in the ballroom which will be decorated for Hallow'e'en with corn cobs and pumpkins.

Free cider will be a special feature of the evening, this being the first time that the admission of fifty cents, per couple or stag, has included both the orchestra and refreshments.

Informality will be the keynote of the evening, due to the coming Sadie Hawkins dance which will be in costume. The first formal will be given November 4. There will be six no-breaks during the evening.

Efforts are being made for this "cider shag" to be different from the usual Saturday night hop in the Union.

Delta Zeta Pledges Entertain With Dance

Honoring rushers and actives, the pledges of Delta Zeta will entertain tonight with a Hallow'e'en dance at the chapter house.

Hallow'e'en colors, pumpkins, and corn stalks will be used as decorations.

Mrs. Sarah Joutet, housemother, will preside at the punch table. She will be assisted by Willy Graves and Dean Tye.

Founders' Day Dinner Held By Kappa Delta At Louisville

Epsilon Omega of Kappa Delta gave its annual Founders' Day banquet Sunday evening at the Kentucky hotel in Louisville with Alpha Xi chapter at the University of Louisville.

A toast was proposed to Epsilon Omega by Virginia Richards, president of Alpha Xi alumnae, and Bill Karraker. Billy Eubank, president of Epsilon Omega chapter.

The history of Kappa Delta, dating from its founding in 1897, was given in a pageant by the Alpha Xi chapter.

The banquet table was in the shape of a diamond, the Kappa Delta logo, and was decorated with white roses, the Kappa Delta flower.

Dinner was served to 150 guests. Patron chapters of Kappa Delta represented at the banquet were Nu, Omicron and Sigma Theta.

The alumnae of Alpha Xi were in charge of arrangements for the banquet.

Delta Zetas Observe Founders' Day At Banquet

Alpha Theta of Delta Zeta observed its Founders' Day Tuesday with a Founders' Birthday party at the chapter house.

Patricia Stern spoke on the origin of the sorority and Verna Mae Meador told something of its founders and grand patrons.

Those present were alumnae, members of the Mother's club, actives and pledges.

Patricia Stern and Verna Mae Meador were in charge of the arrangements for the party. Decorations were in the sorority colors of green and old rose.

As Told To GEORGE MARTIN

Alan Vogeler, Law College whiz, would like for it to be known and circulated widely that he is not the Al Vogel of Sour Mash suit fame. It seems that Vogeler is becoming rather bitter about it.

The Phi Tau November party of about a week ago turned out to be a dash on the wet side of things. This is especially true of one Reggie Palmrose who braved the cold waters of the Ohio River for a pleasure swim at three o'clock in the morning. Guess the water felt right good then didn't it Reggie?

The fair maidens at the K. D. Manton think that Phi Tau Bill Pennycook possesses a good looking bathrobe. Guess the girls have been doing a little peeping work on the sly. Bill wears that robe quite a bit of late because he is now trying his hand at newspaper writing and he thinks that it lends atmosphere. His new work is to be—True Confessions of Carolyn Conant the Chi-O Cutie.

Alpha Gamma Delta's Harkness has a new theme song—"I Need Lovin'." She can be found singing this tune almost any time of the day. Well, guess Pi Kapp Bob Brown can take care of things O. K.

At a recent meeting of the Constitutional Party, held in celebration of its victory in the last elections, Pete Gragis was praised highly for the party's success. To quote "dictator" James Wine, "Pete did more to win for us than any one else that I can think of."—P. S. Gragis was a member of the opposing party.

Do Ann Young now occupies the room right next to the fire escape in the Ohio house. This bit of news might be welcomed by certain campus second story men—Careful none else that I can think of.—P. S. Gragis was a member of the opposing party.

Gladys McDaniel goes home to see her mother every week end. Is that so Gladys? Couldn't it possibly be Dick Bondurant that has that magnetic attraction and draws you to Louisville every Saturday?

Mary A.T.O. is being exceedingly A.T.O. minded these days. She is courting heavily with several of these Greeks. Wonder how soon the field is going to narrow down?

A double feature took place Wednesday for Blondie Tweed Canyon. During the day she had cross words with Harry Conant and Finis the Gentleman, lets forget the cross words and cross words to see who is going to court her now.

Married life is plenty tough. Wally Hestep besides losing a tooth three weeks ago is now in the hospital.

P. R.'s Joe Webb wants a date for the P. R. dance. Three specifications: (1) Good looking, (2) intelligent, (3) To be given personally to the date.

The petition for better food for Phi hall that started circulating this past week was brought about by dream. Yes sir—a dream. One of the freshman girls dreamed that she was eating Phi Hall Ham-burger and when she awakened the following morning half of the mattress was chewed up.

A student from the University of the South—Sewanee—believes in getting around by distance. Mary Bryson received a letter from him stating that he would like to

The following people are hog about each other: Dan Doggett and Ann McMillan; Lyda Garred and Dick Stone; Ann Harding Davis and Tommy Montgomery; Louise Baily and Gus Petro; Eddie David and Winnie O'Leary and last but not least Carl Conner and Carl Conner.

While we are on the subject of Carl Conner . . . remember when he was in the hospital? Well, his hair was so long that a young boy selling magazines entered his room and said . . . "Would you like to buy a magazine lady?" Boy, did Carl burn!

KICK-OFF BILLED ON STOLL FIELD FOR 2:30 P. M.

In the first start of a three game season, Kentucky's question mark freshman football team will meet the twice victorious Vanderbilt Junior Commodores tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 on Stoll Field.

Since the varsity performs on alien sod this week, the Kittens will furnish the grid fans with their week's entertainment. General admission will be 40 cents but student books will be accepted at the gate.

Despite the fact that they resemble a walking quiz contest with plenty yet to be learned concerning their strength, the Kittens, on paper, are potential dynamite. But even the coaching corps, Gene Myers, Joe Ruper and Lloyd Ramsey, won't know what to do until they see how their gadgets hold up under game pressure.

The bout will mark the second start for the young Cats over the full game route. In an early season practice game with the varsity, the Kittens performed miserably, were strapped by 50-0. But since that time great improvement, especially in fundamentals and team work has been exhibited by the front.

In opening with Vanderbilt the Kittens have drawn a team that is regarded as the toughest first year squad in the history of the Tennessee school. Two games played by Vandy have resulted in landslide wins over the fresh clubs from Western Teachers College and Seawane. The game will conclude the Vanderbilt season since the Southeastern conference allows freshman teams to play but three games.

Kentucky is expected to tee-off with a big, powerful line operating ahead of a comparatively light and shifty backfield. Clyde Johnson and Clark Woods, a pair of 220 pounders, are expected to receive the starting nod at the tackles. The starting guard posts are undecided with Norman Beck or Jack Carter due to open on the left side and either Jack Colvin or Bill Welborn slated for the other vacancy.

One of the strongest spots on the team is the center station where Charley Walker will open the relief will be furnished him by Ralph Davis, George Edwards and Gene Gray will probably conduct the starting ends.

Phil Cutchin, son of Carlisle Cutchin, athletic director at Murray State college, will handle the quarterback spot with John Hurs and Jack Kinser running from the halfback posts. The fullback duties will be handled by Bob Herbert, a hard charging 190 pounder. Jack Harris, a tricky looking field runner, will undoubtedly see plenty of action in the game.

BRILLIANT PASSING BY HEDGES LANDS PI KAPS IN GRID FINALS

Behind the expert passing of Billy Hedges, the Pi Kappa Alphas marched into the second and final round of the football tournament by defeating the Alpha Tau Omega team yesterday by a 12-0 score.

Pi Kaps first score came in the first quarter when, after a series of short passes, Hedges' pass to Homer Knight was completed for a touchdown. The second score came in the third quarter on a forty yard pass from Hedges to Crankart. The ATO's threatened several times but the long passes of Scott and Alfrey were continually stopped by the Pi Kaps.

Yesterday's victory places the Pi Kaps in the fraternity tournament finals opposite the winner of the Sigma Chi-Delta Tau Delta game which is to be played this week.

On Wednesday the Sigma Chi's defeated the SAE's in the battle for the championship of League I, 14-6. The Sigma Chi's first touchdown was scored on a pass from Boland to Wine in the opening minutes of play but was matched when the SAE's re-related almost immediately. However, in the second half a blocked punt gave the Sigma Chi's what proved to be the winning two points and in the closing minutes Boland clinched the victory with a 30-yard run up the sidelines to score.

Tuesday's play saw Mitchell's club capture the championship of the Independent league with a 12-6 victory over Slat's fighting crew. In the other game of the afternoon Pi Kappa Alpha eked out a 12-5 victory over Kappa Alpha.

Wednesday's battles completed the round-robin tournaments in the Delta Tau Delta and one independent club advanced into final elimination play. In League I the Sigma Chi's were victorious over the SAE's. In League II Delta Tau Delta finished ahead of Phi Gamma Delta for first place honors, and in League III Pi Kappa Alpha, with a perfect record, emerged victor in the deciding factor in giving them the win. In the opening rounds of the final tournament, the winners of Leagues I and II and Leagues III and IV compete.

YM DISCUSSIONS OPEN THIS WEEK Fraternities And Halls Announce Leaders

Marking its nineteenth year of existence, the YM discussion group series opened this week in the University's 20 fraternity houses and men's dormitories.

The talks, to be conducted every Wednesday night by University and Lexington speakers, are held in the houses of Bart Peak, secretary, "to enable students to enter into discussion of social, economic, and moral problems which they are facing now or will face in future life."

The meetings, according to Mr. Peak, will be conducted for a period of six weeks, and will be closed with a banquet attended by the speakers and representatives from each group.

"The subjects for the discussions," Mr. Peak said, "are based upon the highest ethical standards that they can find, and have in the past proved to be extremely popular."

"This fact is borne out by last year's statistics," he added, "which show that we had enrolled in the groups 585 students, with an average attendance of 487 for the entire period."

The list of speakers and the groups they will lead follow:

Alpha Sigma Phi, Dr. J. Archer Gray; Alpha Gamma Rho, Prof. Fredrick Eby; Alpha Tau Omega, Dr. Otto Koppau; Delta Chi, Dr. Charles Baskerbus; Delta Tau Delta, Dr. W. Hall; Gamma Tau Alpha, Rabbi Milton Grafman.

Kappa Alpha, Dr. Robert Miles; Kappa Sigma, Dr. M. W. White; Lambda Chi Alpha, Prof. William S. Ward; Pi Kappa Alpha, Dr. H. H. Downing; Phi Delta Theta, Dr. T. D. Clark; Phi Kappa Tau, Dr. A. E. Briggs; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Prof. J. E. Hernandez; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Dr. John Mulder.

Sigma Nu, Dr. John Kupper; Sigma Chi, Dr. James H. Eblen; Tau Alpha, Dr. E. N. Lergus; Bradley hall, Edgar Dunn; Breckinridge hall, south, Dr. A. T. Hinzroo; Breckinridge hall, center, Prof. Lawrence Bradford; Breckinridge hall, north, Prof. M. W. Beebe; Kinkead hall, west, Dean L. J. Horlacher, and Kinkead hall, east, Prof. T. S. Horton.

Other groups are being organized this week in the various boarding houses occupied by men students, Mr. Peak added.

The University band will not attend the Xavier game this Saturday in Cincinnati, band director C. V. Maguire announced today.

The band will, however, travel to Birmingham, Ala., on Saturday, November 4, for the Alabama tilt.

but contributes little to the progress of jazz.

One exceptional flash-in-the-pan, however, is his late recording of "Last Two Weeks in July."

On the up-grade is Jan Savitt, who has lately gotten wise to music, and toned his volume down considerably. The result is a recent set of records with a truly remarkable rhythm.

Our boy Les Brown has thus far failed to live up to optimistic predictions, so we're picking another "White Hope" in his stead. This one is Teddy Powell, whose music, though about as subtle as an explosion torpedo, has something decidedly refreshing. He'll bear watching.

And now comes the time when we shall attempt to pick the three current top-ranking songs. The fact that all three are on the quiet side only goes to further our belief that the Glenn Miller influence has, for the time being at least, turned the tide in the direction of "sweet" music.

They are:

- 1) Blue Orchids
- 2) What's New?
- 3) Day In, Day Out.

Any and all protests, together with reasons, will be cheerfully accepted.

Registrations Due In Table Tourney

Registration for the second annual ping pong tournament, sponsored by the game room of the Union building, begins today at the information desk. The winner will be awarded a small engraved loving cup. Second prize will be $1 in trade in the game room.

No entrance fee will be required for the tourney. Regular prices for ping pong will be charged. Last year the tournament was held during examination period, with the result that fifty people participated. At least one hundred contestants are expected to register this year.

Drawings will be made Tuesday, after which the schedule of play will be released.

Block And Bridle

Plans for the fall festival will be formulated at a meeting of Block and Bridle to be held Monday.

Dr. W. P. Gurgis, assistant professor of animal husbandry and president in animal husbandry, Experiment Station, will speak.

FILMS SHOWN TO CLUB

"University of Kentucky May Day Celebration" and "Travel in Europe" were the films shown to members of the Spanish club, at a meeting held Thursday night at the home of Dr. Henry Holmes, assistant professor of Romance languages. The next meeting will be held Thursday, November 9.

Donnelly Appointed Carnival Marshall

Lieut. Col. Harold Donnelly, head of the military department, has been appointed grand marshal of the tobacco carnival parade, it was announced today by those in charge of the carnival. Assisting Colonel Donnelly will be eight senior members of the ROTC who have not yet been appointed. The parade will be held sometime during the carnival which is planned for November 1-4.

Also representing the University in the parade will be the Pershing Rifle company and the band. From Eastern State Teachers College will come its band and part of the ROTC.

A dance will be held in honor of the carnival queen, Marjorie Weaver, from 10 p. m. to 2 a. m., November 3, in the New Busley warehouse. At this function several members of the band and Pershing Rifles will act as ushers.

HOOPSTERS TO START PRACTICE FOR GRUELLING GAME SCHEDULE

Faced by a cut-throat 18 game schedule that calls for bouts with champions from three different conferences, Coach Adolph Rupp made the first call to the hardwood Monday with 14 varsity basketball candidates answering the whistle. As defending champions of the Southeastern Conference, Kentucky will return to the New Orleans Sugar Bowl, December 27, for a game with Ohio State, Big 10 title. Other important inter-sectional bookings are with Clemson, top in the Southern Conference, West Virginia, Eastern Inter collegiate champs, Kansas State, Big 6 powerhouse, Notre Dame, Marquette and Xavier. Five jetsetters from last season's team present Coach Rupp with a nucleus for his squad. These men, Lee Huber, Keith Farnley, Marion Clugish, Layton Rouse and Harry Denham are all tested veterans. Up from last year's "lost battalion" team of men still eligible for three years of varsity service, come Don Orme, Walter White, Stanley Clugish, Hoot Combs, and Carl Staker, all capable of handling a starting berth. Jim King, Lloyd Ramsey, Ken England, Ernal Allen, and Marvin Akers are the contributions from last season's freshman team. Denham, Combs, and Allen are well with the football team and will report after Thanksgiving. Little time was wasted by Coaches Rupp and McBrayer and light doses

STUDENT POLL

(Continued from Page One) should the United States enter the European war as an active fighting agent? 96.8 percent, no; 3.4 percent, yes. 2) If Germany is defeated, do you think the spread of the totalitarian form of government will be prevented? 57 percent, no; 43 percent, yes. 3) Under present conditions, should the United States sell arms on a cash basis to belligerents who use their own ships? 62 percent, yes; 38 percent, no. 4) Do you favor increased armaments and the extension of armed forces in the United States at the present time? 77 percent, yes; 23 percent, no. 5) Would you be willing to fight if the United States itself were attacked? 86.8 percent, yes; 13.2 percent, no. 6) Would you be willing to fight if territorial possessions of the United States were attacked? 63 percent, yes; 37 percent, no. 7) Would you be willing to fight if any country in the western hemisphere were attacked? 49 percent, yes; 51 percent, no. 8) Would you be willing to fight if American ships were sunk with American passengers on board? 81 percent, no; 19 percent, yes. 9) Would you be willing to fight if it seemed that France and England were in danger of defeat? 71 percent, no; 29 percent, yes. Interesting was the fact that five students conscientiously answered "no" to all nine questions asked, while only one replied "yes" to the entire lot. The latter, when asked his reason for such a militant stand, replied "I am a strong opponent of the isolation policy; therefore, I think the only logical thing for this country to do is to enter the war." He is a male student in the College of Arts and Sciences. Nearly all of those who gave a negative answer to each of the nine queries described themselves as pacifists, and opposed to the military in every way and manner. Other interesting comments gathered along with the survey were these: "By a freshman woman in the College of Commerce" "Let Americans stay at home where they belong. If England, France and Germany want to commit suicide, let them, but let's stay out of the mess." (By a junior man in the College of Arts and Sciences) "Totalitarianism is the thing of the future and will not be checked even by Germany's defeat." "By a sophomore man in the College of Agriculture" "Germany's defeat will not check fascism among any country which carries on modern warfare; must, out of necessity, become totalitarian itself. The chances are great that this war-based fascism will linger on in these nations even after the war itself is over." (By a senior in the College of Engineering) "We should increase our armed forces to take up the great army of unemployed now roaming the country." (By a junior man in the College of Arts and Sciences) "The spot of sinking of an American ship would have a lot to do with whether or not I would fight. If it were sunk near our shores, yes, but if in the middle of the ocean or in foreign waters, definitely no." Statistics in the local poll will be sent to the University of California office, where the results of the nationwide survey will be compiled and published.

New Model Men's Suit Appears On Campus

The smartest suit for the university undergraduate men this fall is the new straight front two button model. The last button is placed exactly at the waist line, the shoulders, chest, and back, are full and comfortable. This model adds height to the wearer, and is becoming to every type of figure. Tweeds, chevots, shetlands and covers are the best adapted cloths for this model. They are soft, drape well, and look unusually smart when tailored in this manner. The coat usually has a cash pocket above the right lower pocket, and the breast pocket has a flap. The edges are plain. The back is plain with an 8" or 9" center vent, this is determined by the height of the individual. THORPE'S tailoring department has tailored several of these smart suits for the better dressed university men this fall and they are well qualified to help you design a suit to your exacting taste, making whatever changes that you may desire at an additional cost to you. The suits in this department are easily in the reach of any college man, costing only a few dollars more than a stock suit of the same quality—adv.

has personally scouted the Wildcats in three of their four games. When Xavier grid conscription was held this fall, 16 varsity letters from the 1938 squad that finished the year with seven straight wins were among the 60 answering the call. One of the toughest teams to skin the Cats last season, Xavier was expected to be even stronger this year but a screw was loose somewhere.

In their first start the Muskies were halted by an under-rated St. Mary's of Texas team by a 7-0 score. Then came an easy 19-0 win over Tennessee Poly, which tied Vanderbilt at 12-12, but next time out Xavier was tied tighter than a hangman's noose by St. Vincent's college with a scoreless draw. Last Saturday, looking ragged as a scare-crow, the Muskies lost to Ohio University by 26-6.

Figure unassisted by statistics reveal that the current season conference wins over Vanderbilt and Georgia marks the first time since 1928 that the Cats have defeated two league teams in one year. Also the four game win spurt is the most prolonged victory march since 1933 when Kentucky opened with wins over Maryville, Sewanee, Georgetown and Cincinnati before being rudely awakened from their dreams by Washington and Lee.

The Cats, always a hard team to figure, have lived up to their reputation this week in practice, which has been the highlight of the season. In the Georgia brawl last Saturday have been remedied and the squad, physically, except for John Ebbner and Ed Jacobs, are in fairly good shape. Ebbner still carries the inkblot of some Georgia players on his face while Jacobs is recovering from an infected ear.

Kentucky will hold a great weight edge with the probable starting line of McCubbin, Hardin, Linden, Ebbner, Palmer, Willoughby and Bailey averaging around 200 pounds to 186 for the Xavier forwards. Weights in the backfield are better balanced with a slight advantage going to Xavier. The entire Xavier team will average 183 pounds to 195 for this.

Calling 'Em Wild

By JOE CREASON

Over in Cincinnati sits Coach Clem Crowe, head-man of the Xavier Muskies, and now and then he sighs. For something has happened to his Cinderella football team of 1938.

So far the Muskies, who dropped but their first two games all last year, have been pushed around as much as Thanksgiving, winning one game, losing two and battling through one scoreless dog-fall.

Like the job of a man hired to loop matches into gas tanks, such playing hasn't much future. This statement is particularly true since this season the Muskies were supposed to be hotter than a feather bed in the tropics. With 17 letters and 8 varsity regulars surviving the June diploma game, Xavier again looked like a big time power playing a small time schedule and another great team was expected to come popping out of the mist.

But the cracking of dawn was nothing compared to the way the Muskies have cracked in three of their four games. Except for one brief fit, a 19-0 win over T.P.I. who held Vanderbilt to a 12-12 tie, the Xavier has been as disappointing as Christmas without toys.

Don't Sneer At Chances
In comparing season records it might appear that Xavier's chances of trimming Kentucky's undefeated Wildcats in their annual clam-bake in Cincinnati tomorrow are practically invisible. But they aren't for a variety of reasons.

To be blunt as a hammer, Kentucky in the last two games, has been far off the form that netted glittering early season wins over VMI and Vanderbilt. In last week's battle in which the Cats made the Georgia Bulldogs bark the caning equivalent of "uncle" by a very narrow 13-6 margin, their inability to score from within the 3 yard line stood out like a bath-tub in a log cabin.

Hide In Woods For Cats
Then Xavier's season, since the rivalry was inaugurated in 1935, has always begun and ended with Kentucky. What a slot in the arm is to a dope fiend or a drink is to a thirsty man, even the prospects of a win over Kentucky has been to Xavier. In an effort to attain this much cherished victory, the Muskies are willing to blast out with both barrels and always go after the Cats with the nonchalant of hounds scenting a rabbit.

Any team that points for a game like Xavier waits for Kentucky is Kirwan and his posse prep the Cats for a Xavier squad they know to be potential dynamite. If the Muskies reach the peak experts say is within their power, then tomorrow's battle promises to be as closely matched as billiard balls.

Here They Come
After a 7 day reprieve from predicting, during which time I secretly (on at 11) picked seven winners in eight tries, I return again this week to pick my favorites—that list of teams you know to disregard totally.

Kentucky 13 Xavier 0
Alabama 7 Mississippi State 0
Auburn 13 Georgia Tech 20
Tennessee 35 Mercer 0
Duke 14 Wake Forest 7
Michigan 28 Yale 0
Cornell 13 Ohio State 7

JONES RATES 3RD AMONG SCORERS
By running his joint total for the year to 28 with one touchdown last week, Junior Jones, Kentucky's 170 pound sophomore halfback, held on to third place among the Southern conference scorers.

Ken Kavatsyugh, I-S-U's candidate for All-America end, ran his total for the season to 48 and kept first place by a comfortable margin.

Harvey Johnson, Mississippi State halfback, scored once last week, but could not match Kavatsyugh, who has scored all but 12 of his teams 60 points this season.

Although he threw the touchdown pass that broke up the Georgia game, Dave Zoeller scored only one point, on a kick after touchdown, but retained sixth place in the scoring derby.

Ernie Allen was blanked, but his total of 18 was good for seventh place. Jim Hardin made a bid for a place with the leader by running his total to 11 with one touchdown last week.

The scoring leaders:

Kavatsyugh, I-S-U		5	0	45

"Have you ever noticed that Camels burn longer and give you more smoking?"

ASKS VAN CAMPEN HEINER
FAMOUS GAME AND FISHING AUTHORITY

Above, "VAN" waiting in the duck blinds for the "even hour." Explorer, sportsman, scientist, conservationist, author of the authoritative, new "A Book on Duck Shooting," Heiner knows the waterfowl flyways from California to Maine, Alaska to Mexico, and zone of Europe too. "VAN" has been a Camel smoker for 15 years.

You can tell a lot about a cigarette by whether it burns fast or slowly. Camel cigarettes are noted for their long burning. In fact, they burned longer, slower than any other brand tested, in recent scientific studies. Van Campen Heiner, the famous American authority on wild game, points out an interesting angle to this, "Camels give more smoking because those choice tobaccos burn so slowly," he says. "And I think the way they burn is a good way to judge the quality of cigarettes too. I can smoke them steadily and they still taste smooth and cool, and my mouth feels fresh—and there's no throat irritation. Camels are mild, flavory. They give more pleasure per puff—and more puffs per pack." Get extra smoking per pack—topped off with the delicate taste of choice tobaccos. Smoke Camels

MORE PLEASURE PER PUFF...MORE PUFFS PER PACK!
CAMELS—Long-Burning Costlier Tobaccos

- 1 CAMELS were found to contain more tobacco by weight than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.
 - 2 Camels burned slower than any other brand tested—25% slower than the average time of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack!
 - 3 In the same tests, Camels held their ash for longer than the average time for all the other brands.
